

Strategic Financial Client Advisor

Do you have a passion for the fitness community, thrive when you're helping businesses grow, and excel at providing insight to business owners making critical decisions?

This position is not for everyone. We are an entirely virtual public accounting firm experiencing sizable growth of which you have the opportunity to be an instrumental part. We work odd hours and on tight deadlines, respond quickly to client requests, are agile in our approach, and navigate through difficult client situations. The fitness industry is full of successes, but also failures as 80% of businesses fail within the first 5 years. This makes us uniquely positioned to help reduce that fail rate while helping other locations excel in their profitability.

At The Fitness CPA we leverage cloud based platforms and test new technologies to optimize our workflow which means the software you learned last month may be replaced with something that may or may not work as well as we search for the best solution to effectively and efficiently provide value to our clients. Our public accounting firm provides outsourced CFO, accounting, payroll and tax services to the fitness industry.

With oversight from our firm founder, you will provide fractional CFO and advisory services directly to our clients based upon financial data provided by our team of senior staff accountant CPAs. Occasionally, you will need to roll up your sleeves and assist staff complete transactional financial work. This entirely remote position is a full-time, telecommuting role. As such, the ability to communicate clearly via video, email and telephone is critical.
